Spring Concert

A branch of white cherry blossoms with pink centers is the central focus, set against a background of a light blue sky and a tan wall. The blossoms are in various stages of bloom, some fully open and some as buds.

Milton Chorus Senior Spotlight

Amelia Anbild is so thankful to have been a part of choir for all four years of her high school experience at Milton. She has very much enjoyed all the wonderful people and opportunities that choir has brought her such as All-State, GMEA, and being a part of the Unaccompanied Minors. As she continues on in her journey at Chapman University as a screenwriting major, she will always look back on her time with Milton choir as a beautiful and loving experience. Thank you to Mr. Bowers and Mr. Schreer!

Janani Bhavani sings with the Chorale ensemble and is a member of Milton Misses. She plans to attend Berry College to dual major in Music Education and Creative Technology. She plans to teach high school choir when she graduates. Her favorite part of Milton Chorus is the long-term friends/family she made while in the program.

Chloe Cox is happy to be attending Paul Mitchell The School Esani in the fall. She is also excited to be traveling to Italy with Milton Chorus after graduation! Her favorite memory is when she went to GMEA with her classmates in Women's Select. Milton chorus has allowed her to make memories and friends that will last a lifetime.

Jennifer Dunbar is very excited to be attending the University of Georgia in the fall. She plans to study business analytics and to study abroad.

Paxton Fletcher is a singer in the Concert Choir. He has been singing since sixth grade. After graduation high school, Paxton plans to take a gap year to contemplate future plans.

Rachael Germany is excited to be continuing her education at Georgia Tech beginning this summer as a BioChem major. She is proud to have sung with her fellow seniors for all these years and can't wait to see what this class does next.

Reid Golloher plans to attend Georgia Southern University majoring in business administration. He will also be trying out for the cheer team at GSU. He plans to start a business as soon as he finishes college! His favorite memory would easily be the trip to Gatlinburg stating, "it was so much fun and I probably will never forget it!"

Christy Halverson will be attending the Savannah College of Art and Design at the Atlanta campus and majoring in photography. Her favorite memory of being in chorus was going to Disney world and meeting new people throughout her four years!

Eli Hutchinson will be attending Western Carolina University in Fall of 2019, where he will be pursuing a B.F.A. in Film and Television production at Western's School of Stage and Screen.

He hopes to one day be a movie director, screenwriter, or cinematographer. Eli has thoroughly enjoyed his time in Chorale, where has been a bass his freshman, sophomore, and senior years. He thanks Mr. Bowers and his fellow choir members for his time with them and wishes them all the best.

Jade Jacobs joined the Milton Choir as a senior. After graduation, she is planning to take a gap year, and travel and work. After her gap year, Jade plans on attending college and majoring in English and minoring in History. Her favorite memory from chorus is when Mr. Schreer acted like a magician to give everyone in the group the spirit to escape the escape room.

Nicole Jacobs is originally from Ohio and moved here in 2017. This is her fourth year in chorus, but only the second one at Milton. Nicole is planning on taking a gap year to pursue music starting this coming fall. She has loved being in chorus here and wishes it could have been for all four years. She wants to thank everyone for the constant support over the last couple years and hopes to come back and visit!

Morgan Lanzo is a 4-year choir senior and an honor grad. She has participated in 2 District Honor Choirs, sang with 3 All-State Choirs, and was one of the winners of District 5 Solo and Ensemble this year. She has been a section leader her senior year, as well as a Choral Council member. She is continuing on to Kansas State University, where she will continue singing in choir as well as deciding a major. She would like to thank Mr. Bowers, Mr. Schreer, her family, & friends for their ongoing support.

Harrison Lewis is excited to be attending Northwestern University next year, where he will be studying theatre. This is his second year in the chorus program as well as his fourth in the drama program, having participated in All-State Chorus twice as well. He has made some of his closest friends through chorus and he cannot wait to continue with the arts. He will always be immensely grateful for the guidance of Mr. Bowers and Mr. Schreer, both inside the classroom and out. Enjoy the concert!

Liam Lucy plans to join the United States Marine Corps and become a Supply Admin Operations Specialist (3043). When my enlistment is done, I will apply to a college for Acting. My favorite memory of Milton Chorus is when Sam Wilder dyed his hair a bright orange and Bowers made fun of him for the rest of the year by calling him "Heatmiser".

Juliana Lutz will be attending the University of Georgia in the fall with an intended major of Graphic Design. She is very excited to pursue her passion for art. Juliana will always cherish her memories from Milton Chorus and looks forward to making new memories at UGA. Her favorite memory is the lock-in from this past year, where she became closer to her chorus family. Go dawgs!

Lukas Matthews is attending Middle Georgia State University in the fall to pursue a degree in aviation and later hopes to get a job with Delta as an airline pilot. He is currently working on his Private Pilot License and plans to get it by graduation. He would like to thank Mr. Bowers and Mr.

Jenny Maybaum will be attending Drexel University next semester and cannot be more excited! She will be majoring in Marketing and hopes to continue pursuing music throughout her college career. Jenny has loved being a part of Milton Chorus over the last four years and has made so many amazing memories including the Disney trip and performing at Casa Nuova. She wants to thank her parents for coming to every concert and most importantly, Mr. Bowers for all of the opportunities he has presented her with.

Katie McCroskey will be attending Kennesaw State University as a pre-nursing/pre-med emphasis major. She was accepted by audition into The School of Music as a music minor. Katie is interested in becoming a nurse practitioner or anesthesiologist, as well as continuing her career in vocal performance. She has truly loved being a part of the Milton Chorus family. Her favorite memories from her time in Milton Chorus include making long lasting friendships, being a co-leader in Bella Voce, and GMEA.

Milton Chorus Senior Spotlight

Max Morella has enjoyed every moment singing with the Milton Chorus, and is both saddened and excited to be moving on to the next stage of life. This fall, he will be studying at Kennesaw State University, and pursuing a career in Computer Science. He intends to keep singing, writing, and maybe pick up tap dancing somewhere along the way? His favorite memory has been be all the quality time spent at lunch and dinner during honor choirs in Midtown, Athens and Louisville.

Allison Morales plans to attend Gwinnett Technical College in the fall this year. She might transfer after two years from there to Georgia State University. Her favorite memory in Milton Chorus is building friendships she would've never thought would blossom. Another memory is being able to experience all the incredible talent in the program!

Bella Morrissy hopes to always remember the exhaustion at Lock-Ins, the Cabaret performances, the terror of auditions, the pride she felt attending Allstate and the sensation felt at GMEA when

"we KILLED IT." Bella will be returning to her home country of Canada to study education and biology at Queen's University in Ontario. Bella would like to thank Bowers and Schreer for everything they do on an off stage. Bella thanks her parents and friends for making such a memorable 4 years :)

Rhea Patil loves having been in Milton Chorus for all four years of high school. She plans to continue her education at New York University as a Music Business major and cannot thank Mr. Bowers and Mr. Schreer enough for all the effort they've put into this program. Chorus has consistently been the highlight of Rhea's high school experience, not only because of all the incredible music, but also the incredible people.

Josh Potter will attend Kennesaw State and major in Music and minor in Business. As far as career plans, he strives to be a vocal and instrumental artist as well as a business leader in the near future. One of his favorite memories in the Milton Choir was sharing an amazing experience at GMEA with his wonderful peers!

After Graduation, Jake Roscoe plans to attend Emerson College in Boston to pursue a BFA in Comedic Arts. Jake has enjoyed his time in Milton Chorus, even though this year was his only year in the program. He has enjoyed working with Mr. Bowers and Mr. Schreer and is thankful for everything they have done for him.

Allison Sandiford would like to thank everyone who has made her chorus experience special, including but not limited to all the Milton Misses (especially her co-leader Kamryn), her sopranos, Mr. Schreer, and Mr. Bowers. Next year, she plans to attend the University of Georgia and pursue a music degree. She is also excited to go abroad with chorus to Italy this summer! She is grateful to have participated in Milton Chorus, and would like to thank Mr. Bowers once more for these life-changing four years.

Louis Sellers plans to attend Pace University for a BFA in Acting for Film and Television. He would like to thank Mr. Bowers, Mr. Schreer, and all the amazing chorus students for making it a wonderful first and last year in Milton Chorale.

Jenna Smith is planning on attending Georgia State University in the fall and minoring in music. She plans on pursuing a career in music, hopefully, becoming a famous singer. Jenna has enjoyed singing since she could make sounds and is excited to continue learning and performing through her life.

Milton Chorus Senior Spotlight

Jordan Wainscott

Nate Ware plans to attend the University of Georgia in the fall. He intends to major in business with possible concentration in economics. He has not yet decided exactly what his career plans are but he is excited for the future. He has always loved singing and plans to continue to sing in college. His favorite moments in chorus happen before the concert, making beautiful musical moments in the classroom. Nate is excited to graduate and can't wait to look back at his fond memories of Milton Chorus

Jackson Wildes has participated in chorus for 4 years and has loved getting to sing in chorale, barbershop, unaccompanied minors, and participate in cabaret and other amazing opportunities. Jackson has made so many lifelong friends through chorus and is so thankful for the home it has brought him. He is so grateful to Mr. Bowers and Mr. Schreer for being such great mentors over the past few years. Jackson will be attending Samford University and majoring in choral music education.

Charlotte Williams has decided to major in graphic design and minor in film at Georgia State University. She is excited about furthering her artistic career. This summer, she plans on going on a mission trip to Ecuador, work, and hang out with her friends before school starts. Her favorite memories throughout her four years in choir have been singing with her sister freshman year and performing in Cabaret every year.
